Service package: setup support – Telephone support

Book VENDY1 Service now: Telephone support when installing your vending machine. Live help from the professional – conveniently & safely start!

Item number UD10538

Product description

What you get – phone support on setup day

Personal assistance by telephone during the setup
– You are accompanied step by step by step by step by an expert

Step-by-step instructions for commissioning
– Secure and comprehensible – you customize your machine

?Nayax and price groups help
– Support for product data, price structure and system connection

?Support for spiral occupancy & Sort
– For optimal product presentation and sales flow

Technical support (e.g. MDB & Old age verification
– We jointly examine all important functions

Conducting a live test sale
– To start directly

Tips for optimal product presentation
– Not only does your range work, but also convinces

Note:
The price shall apply to:1 device
Each other device: +50 € net

Your advantage:
You set your machine a – butwith a professional at your side. Ideal for self-starters with retention!

The prerequisite is that your complete product range including prices will be transmitted to your desired location at least two weeks before the scheduled delivery of the machine. In addition, the machine must have been purchased via us.

More pictures