

Upgrade cable for ITL Schein Acceptor

Upgrade Line for vending machines – ideal for software or firmware updates to payment modules. Compatible with many machine components. Maintenance made easy.

Item number UD10594

Weight 0.08kg

Product description

Upgrade Line - Connection Cable for Module Update

The Upgrade Line is used to run software or firmware updates to payment modules and other components of vending machines. With the cable, modules can easily be connected to a PC or an update tool to activate new features or to play bug fixes.

Ideal for operators who want to keep their devices up-to-date regularly.

- ☐ Allows firmware and software updates
- ☐ Compatible with different payment modules
- ☐ Easy connection to PC or update tool
- ☐ Unpredictable for maintenance and system maintenance
- ☐ Helpful in launching new functions

More pictures

